MY BIO BY WINEMAKER JORDAN FIORENTINI

Delicate and subtle at first pour, this wine opens up to reveal intricately woven flavors and structure as you give it air and time in your glass. Year after year, Block B wows us with its consistent and unique palette of brooding and savory notes highlighted by flowers and berry fruit. The 2016 delivers on all of these levels with a yin and yang of flavors folding over each other: roasted meats, black olive, dark earth and chocolate. High notes of black cherry, tobacco leaves, and white flowers send the wine ascending to the back palate, where texture builds.
