MY BIO BY WINEMAKER JORDAN FIORENTINI

This wine resides in the place where the forest, the ocean, and the hillside berry patch meet. With air, the wine opens up to create a lush, full, and energized palatial experience that is constantly see-sawing between the sweet and savory: roasted game, grilled herbs, damp forest floor, purple-berried fruit, sun-warmed lavender, kalamata, and black olive. She's a hunter-gatherer and shows us how unforgettable and meaningful Mourvèdre from West Paso can be.

2017 VERACITY

Complex & intriguing from first sniff/sip, this wine immediately pulls at all the senses - savory, sweet, salty, umami - forest floor, wet soil, lavender, violet, leather, briny olives, black cherry, gilled herbs, black licorice and milk chocolate texture.

Palate is full and rich yet lifted by integrated acid alongside all the various flavors
