39% Viognier, 5% Roussanne

94 points, Jeb Dunnuck

"Bright citrus, tangerine, honeyed flowers, and some chalky mineral notes all emerge... a crisp, medium-bodied, vibrant white. Aged in a combination of concrete, foudre, and French oak barrels and puncheons, it's one of those whites that plays in the racy, refreshing end of the spectrum yet still brings texture, richness, and length. It's beautifully done." - Jeb Dunnuck
